

LIFESPAN FOLDING TREADMILL | TR1200i

Description

With capabilities as vast as your ambitions, the TR1200i folding treadmill lets you command each aspect of your fitness, all at a price that can't be beat. The 51cm by 143cm running surface is perfect for walking, jogging, or running, and is supported by 6 compression shock absorbers to provide safe cushioning for your knees, back, and joints. To help track your workout, the folding treadmill automatically records your exercise data to a USB storage device for upload to your Club account. And when you're done? Simply fold up the treadmill with EZfold™ for unobtrusive, compact storage. The perfect blend of superior performance and exceptional economy all in one treadmill.
